

Department of International Foundation Program

國際專修部

- Students receive convenience in visa application from TETO (Language proficiency is NOT required).
- Students will enroll to a dedicated Chinese courses for least 720 hours of 1st-year. (About 20 hours/per week)
- Students are eligible to apply for Working Permits. (Max. of 20 hours per week).

Chinese Courses (One Year) 華語先修課程 (1年)

- Time: 2025 Fall Admission, 2 Semesters (September 2025~August 2026)
- Application requirement: Graduated from High School
- Application Deadline: 6 July, 2025
- Fees:
 - Tuition Fee: NTD$27,000 Per semester
 - Dormitory Fee: NTD $10,000/per semester (Original price)
 - Insurance Fee: NTD $3,000/First semester, NTD$4,956/ Second semester
- Scholarships:
 - There is no scholarship in 1st-year Chinese courses semesters, but CSU will assist in matching part-time jobs.
 - Dormitory Fee will be waived for applicants with outstanding academic performance.

Professional Courses (4 Year Bachelor Degree) 專業課程 (4 年制學士班)

- After one year Chinese program, students must pass the A2 of the TOCFL then continue to study professional courses (Industrial Engineering and Management or Electrical Engineering).
- Student must choose a major program before admission to Department of International Foundation Program.
- Fees:
 - Tuition Fee: NTD $54,735 /per semester
 - Dormitory Fee: NTD $10,000 /per semester (Original price)
 - National Health Insurance Fee: NTD $4,956 / per 6 months
- Scholarships:
 - NTD$ 3,500 per month (If there is no violation of school regulations, students can continue to apply for scholarship up to 4 years; There is no scholarship, if there is an off-campus internship for the whole semester.)
 - Dormitory Fee will be waived for applicants with outstanding academic performance.

